DOWN TO THE DEPTHS

What we learned...

- The Midianites have been ravaging the Israelite- like “Locusts” (Judges 6:1-6)
- Gideon is Prudent, Cautious, and Obedient; Not a Coward
- Earns the name Jerub-Baal for destroying the altar to Baal
- Spirit of the Lord is with him (6:34) has told him he will win!

A dramatic landscape with mountains and a cloudy sky with sunlight rays.

Judges 7:1

<sup>1</sup> Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

Judges 7:2-3

<sup>2</sup> The Lord said to Gideon, “You have too many men. I cannot deliver Midian into their hands, or Israel would boast against me, ‘My own strength has saved me.’ <sup>3</sup> Now announce to the army, ‘Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

Deuteronomy 20:4-5

<sup>4</sup> For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory.”<sup>5</sup> The officers shall say to the army: “Has anyone built a new house and not yet begun to live in it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else may begin to live in it.

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric landscape. It features silhouetted mountain ranges under a sky where bright light rays, resembling a sunburst or divine light, break through the clouds. The overall tone is somber yet hopeful, with the light rays providing a focal point of brightness.

Deuteronomy 20:6-7

<sup>6</sup> Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else enjoy it. <sup>7</sup> Has anyone become pledged to a woman and not married her? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else marry her.”

A dramatic landscape featuring a range of mountains under a cloudy sky. Sunlight rays break through the clouds, creating a powerful and atmospheric scene. The foreground shows rolling hills and valleys, with some areas illuminated by the low sun, suggesting either dawn or dusk.

Deuteronomy 20:8

<sup>8</sup> Then the officers shall add, “Is anyone afraid or fainthearted? Let him go home so that his fellow soldiers will not become disheartened too.”

Judges 7:2-3

<sup>2</sup> The Lord said to Gideon, “You have too many men. I cannot deliver Midian into their hands, or Israel would boast against me, ‘My own strength has saved me.’ <sup>3</sup> Now announce to the army, ‘Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’” So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

Soldier Count

Gideon's Army: 32,000 men

~~32,000~~ 10,000 men

Judges 7:4

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will thin them out for you there. If I say, ‘This one shall go with you,’ he shall go; but if I say, ‘This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

A dramatic landscape with mountains and a cloudy sky with rays of light. The text is overlaid on a dark, semi-transparent rectangular box.

Judges 7:5-6

5 So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, “Separate those who lap the water with their tongues as a dog laps from those who kneel down to drink.” 6 Three hundred of them drank from cupped hands, lapping like dogs. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.

Judges 7:7-8

<sup>7</sup> The LORD said to Gideon, “With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands. Let all the others go home.” <sup>8</sup> So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites home but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others.

Soldier Count

Gideon's Army: 32,000 men

~~32,000~~ 10,000 men

~~10,000~~ 300 men

A dramatic landscape with mountains and a cloudy sky with light rays. The scene is dark, with the sun or moon low on the horizon, creating a silhouette effect on the mountains. Light rays break through the clouds, illuminating the scene. The overall mood is mysterious and powerful.

Judges 7:8-9

Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley. <sup>9</sup> During that night the LORD said to Gideon, “Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands.”

Judges 7:10-12

<sup>10</sup> If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah <sup>11</sup> and listen to what they are saying. Afterward, you will be encouraged to attack the camp.” So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp. <sup>12</sup> The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13

<sup>13</sup> Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. “I had a dream,” he was saying. “A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed.”

Judges 7:14

<sup>14</sup> His friend responded, “This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands.”

Judges 7:15-16

<sup>15</sup> When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he bowed down and worshiped. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, “Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands.” <sup>16</sup> Dividing the three hundred men into three companies, he placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside.

Soldier Count

Gideon's Army: 32,000 men

~~32,000~~ 10,000 men

~~10,000~~ 300 men

100 - 100 - 100

Judges 7:17-18

<sup>17</sup> “Watch me,” he told them. “Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do. <sup>18</sup> When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then from all around the camp blow yours and shout, ‘For the LORD and for Gideon.’”

A dramatic landscape with mountains and a cloudy sky with light rays.

Judges 7:19

<sup>19</sup> Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric landscape featuring silhouetted mountains and a sunburst effect where light rays break through a cloudy sky. The text is overlaid on this background.

Judges 7:20-21

<sup>20</sup> The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!” <sup>21</sup> While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.

Judges 7:22

<sup>22</sup> When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords. The army fled to Beth Shittah toward Zererah as far as the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Judges 7:23-24

<sup>23</sup> Israelites from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh were called out, and they pursued the Midianites. <sup>24</sup> Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth Barah.”

The background of the slide is a dramatic landscape. It features a range of dark, silhouetted mountains under a sky filled with heavy, dark clouds. Bright light rays, resembling sunlight breaking through, emanate from behind the clouds in the upper center, creating a powerful and atmospheric effect. The overall color palette is dark, with shades of grey, black, and muted brown, punctuated by the bright white light from the sun.

Judges 7:24-25

So all the men of Ephraim were called out and they seized the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth Barah. <sup>25</sup> They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.
