

A long-exposure photograph of a car at night, showing vibrant red and white light trails that curve through a dark landscape. The background is a deep black night sky with faint, distant lights. The light trails are the primary visual element, creating a sense of motion and speed.

MARK

a moving account

Mark

- John Mark
- The Gospel of Peter
- Gentile Audience
- Who is Jesus?
- Are you following?

Mark 2:1-15

And when he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. 2 And many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even at the door. And he was preaching the word to them.

Mark 2:1-15

3 And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. 4 And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and when they had made an opening, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay.

Mark 2:1-15

5 And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.” 6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, 7 “Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

Mark 2:1-15

8 And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, “Why do you question these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, take up your bed and walk’?

Mark 2:1-15

10 But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—he said to the paralytic— 11 “I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home.” 12 And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, “We never saw anything like this!”

Mark 2:1-15

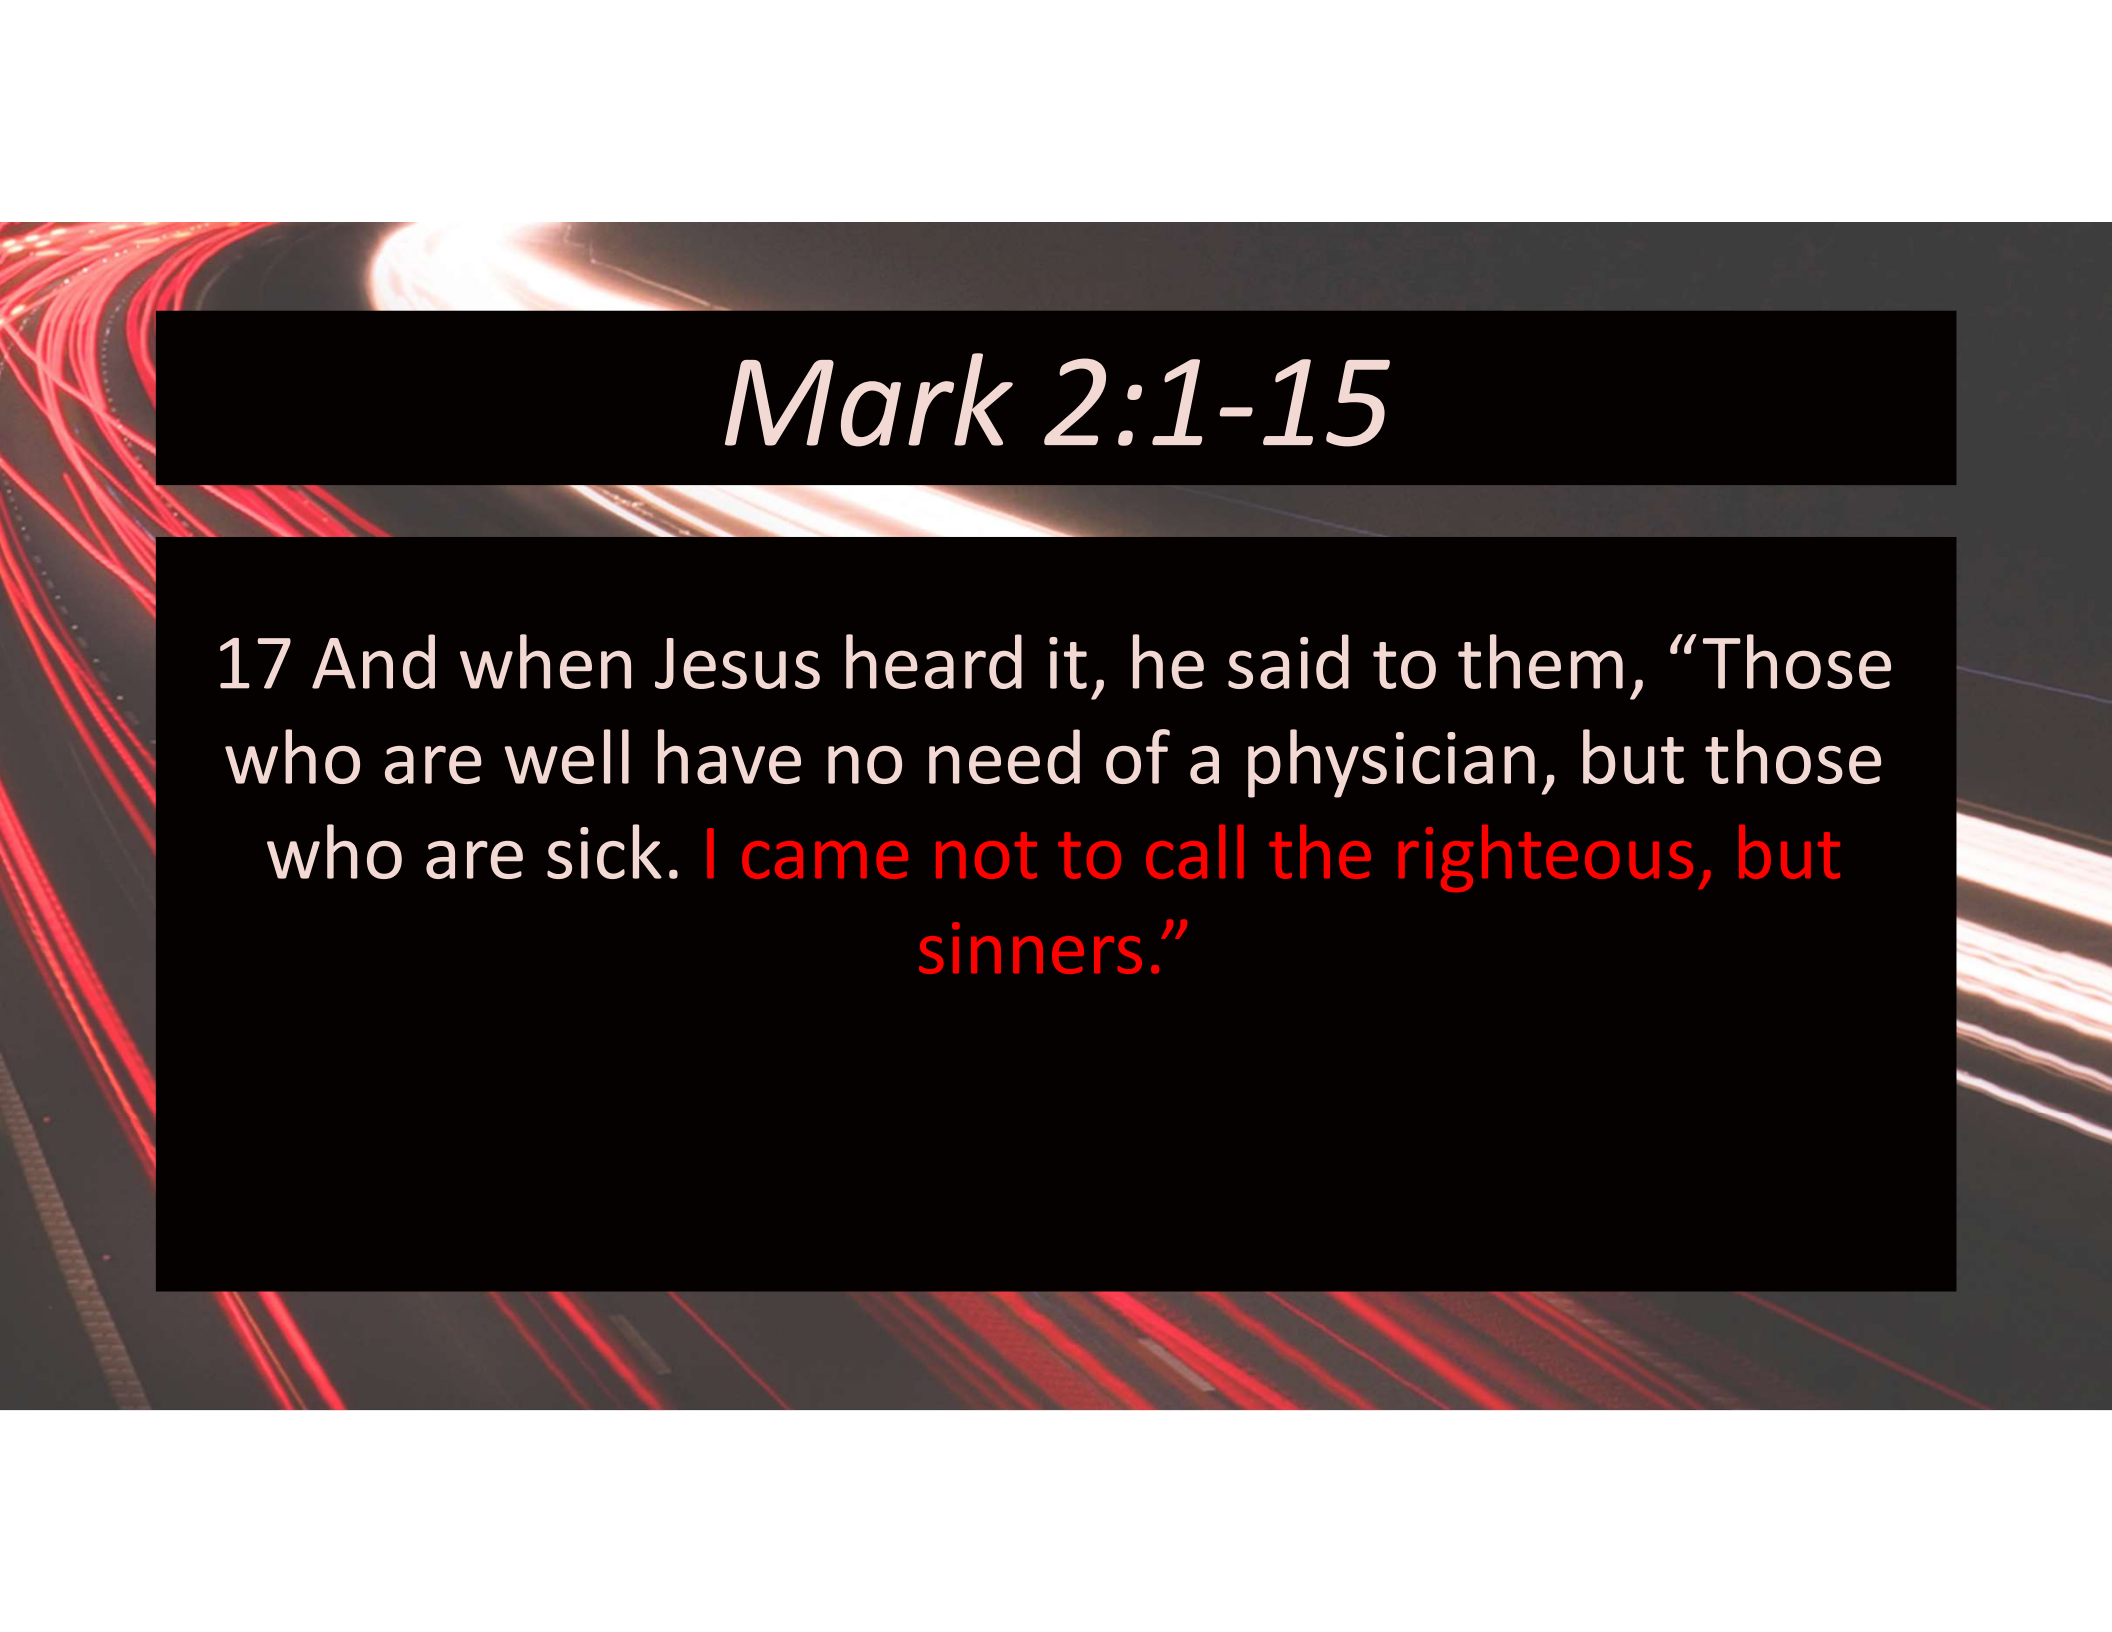

13 He went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. 14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him.

Mark 2:1-15

15 And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.

Mark 2:1-15

16 And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

The background of the slide features a dark, textured surface with numerous bright, glowing streaks of red and orange light. These streaks are curved and appear to be moving across the frame, creating a sense of dynamic energy and movement. The light streaks are most prominent on the left and right sides, with some extending towards the center.

Mark 2:1-15

17 And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, “Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

So What?

- What power does Jesus have in your life?
- Has Jesus hung out with your friends?
- Do you think you are sick?
